

Orienteering:
a “How-to” guide for young dogs

Do's and Don'ts (mostly don'ts)

Familiarise yourself with the equipment provided

Do's and Don'ts (mostly don'ts)

Most dog breeds can't read maps, so you may not need to carry it round with you

Do's and Don'ts (mostly don'ts)

Set off confidently, even though you have no idea where you are going

Do's and Don'ts (mostly don'ts)

Don't eat the dibber

Do's and Don'ts (mostly don'ts)

If in doubt, follow the scent to the next control

Do's and Don'ts (mostly don'ts)

Don't choose a course which is too long or too hard

Do's and Don'ts (mostly don'ts)

We said DON'T eat the dibber
